

DISCOVER THE FUN OF LEARNING ASL!

FEES:

There are 32 classes in a year.
$320 per semester
$640 for the entire year.
Students receive .5 credit each semester.
Classes are 75 minutes long.

No textbook is needed for the course. The instructor provides all materials.

The home school class follows the same rigor as public high school courses, but with the scheduled flexibility of meeting only once a week. Signed videos are a regular homework expectation.

JESSICA PARKER has 20+ years of ASL teaching experience. She holds a Bachelor's and Master's Degree from Dallas Baptist University and is nearing completion of her Ed. D in Curriculum & Instruction. She is a published ASL curriculum author. She is a certified ASD teacher and teaches ASL at East High School in Anchorage, Alaska and has first-hand exposure within the Deaf community as a CODA (Child of a Deaf Adult). With a passion for teaching and writing ASL curriculum, Jessica aims to develop successful ASL programs throughout the nation.

Classes begin August 28th and follow the ASD school calendar. Students need a flash drive for assignment submittal.

REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT AVAILABLE ONLINE AT WWW.ASLCONCEPTS.COM or through your homeschool organization.

This is a theme-based ASL class, so previous ASL students can retake and learn all new material.
